

Arendz collection

JEAN FISCHER

THE young South African designer, Errol Arendz who is making a name for himself designing clothes for elegant women including Barbara Barnard, wife of Dr Chris Barnard will present his spring and summer collection in Windhoek on Monday, October 30.

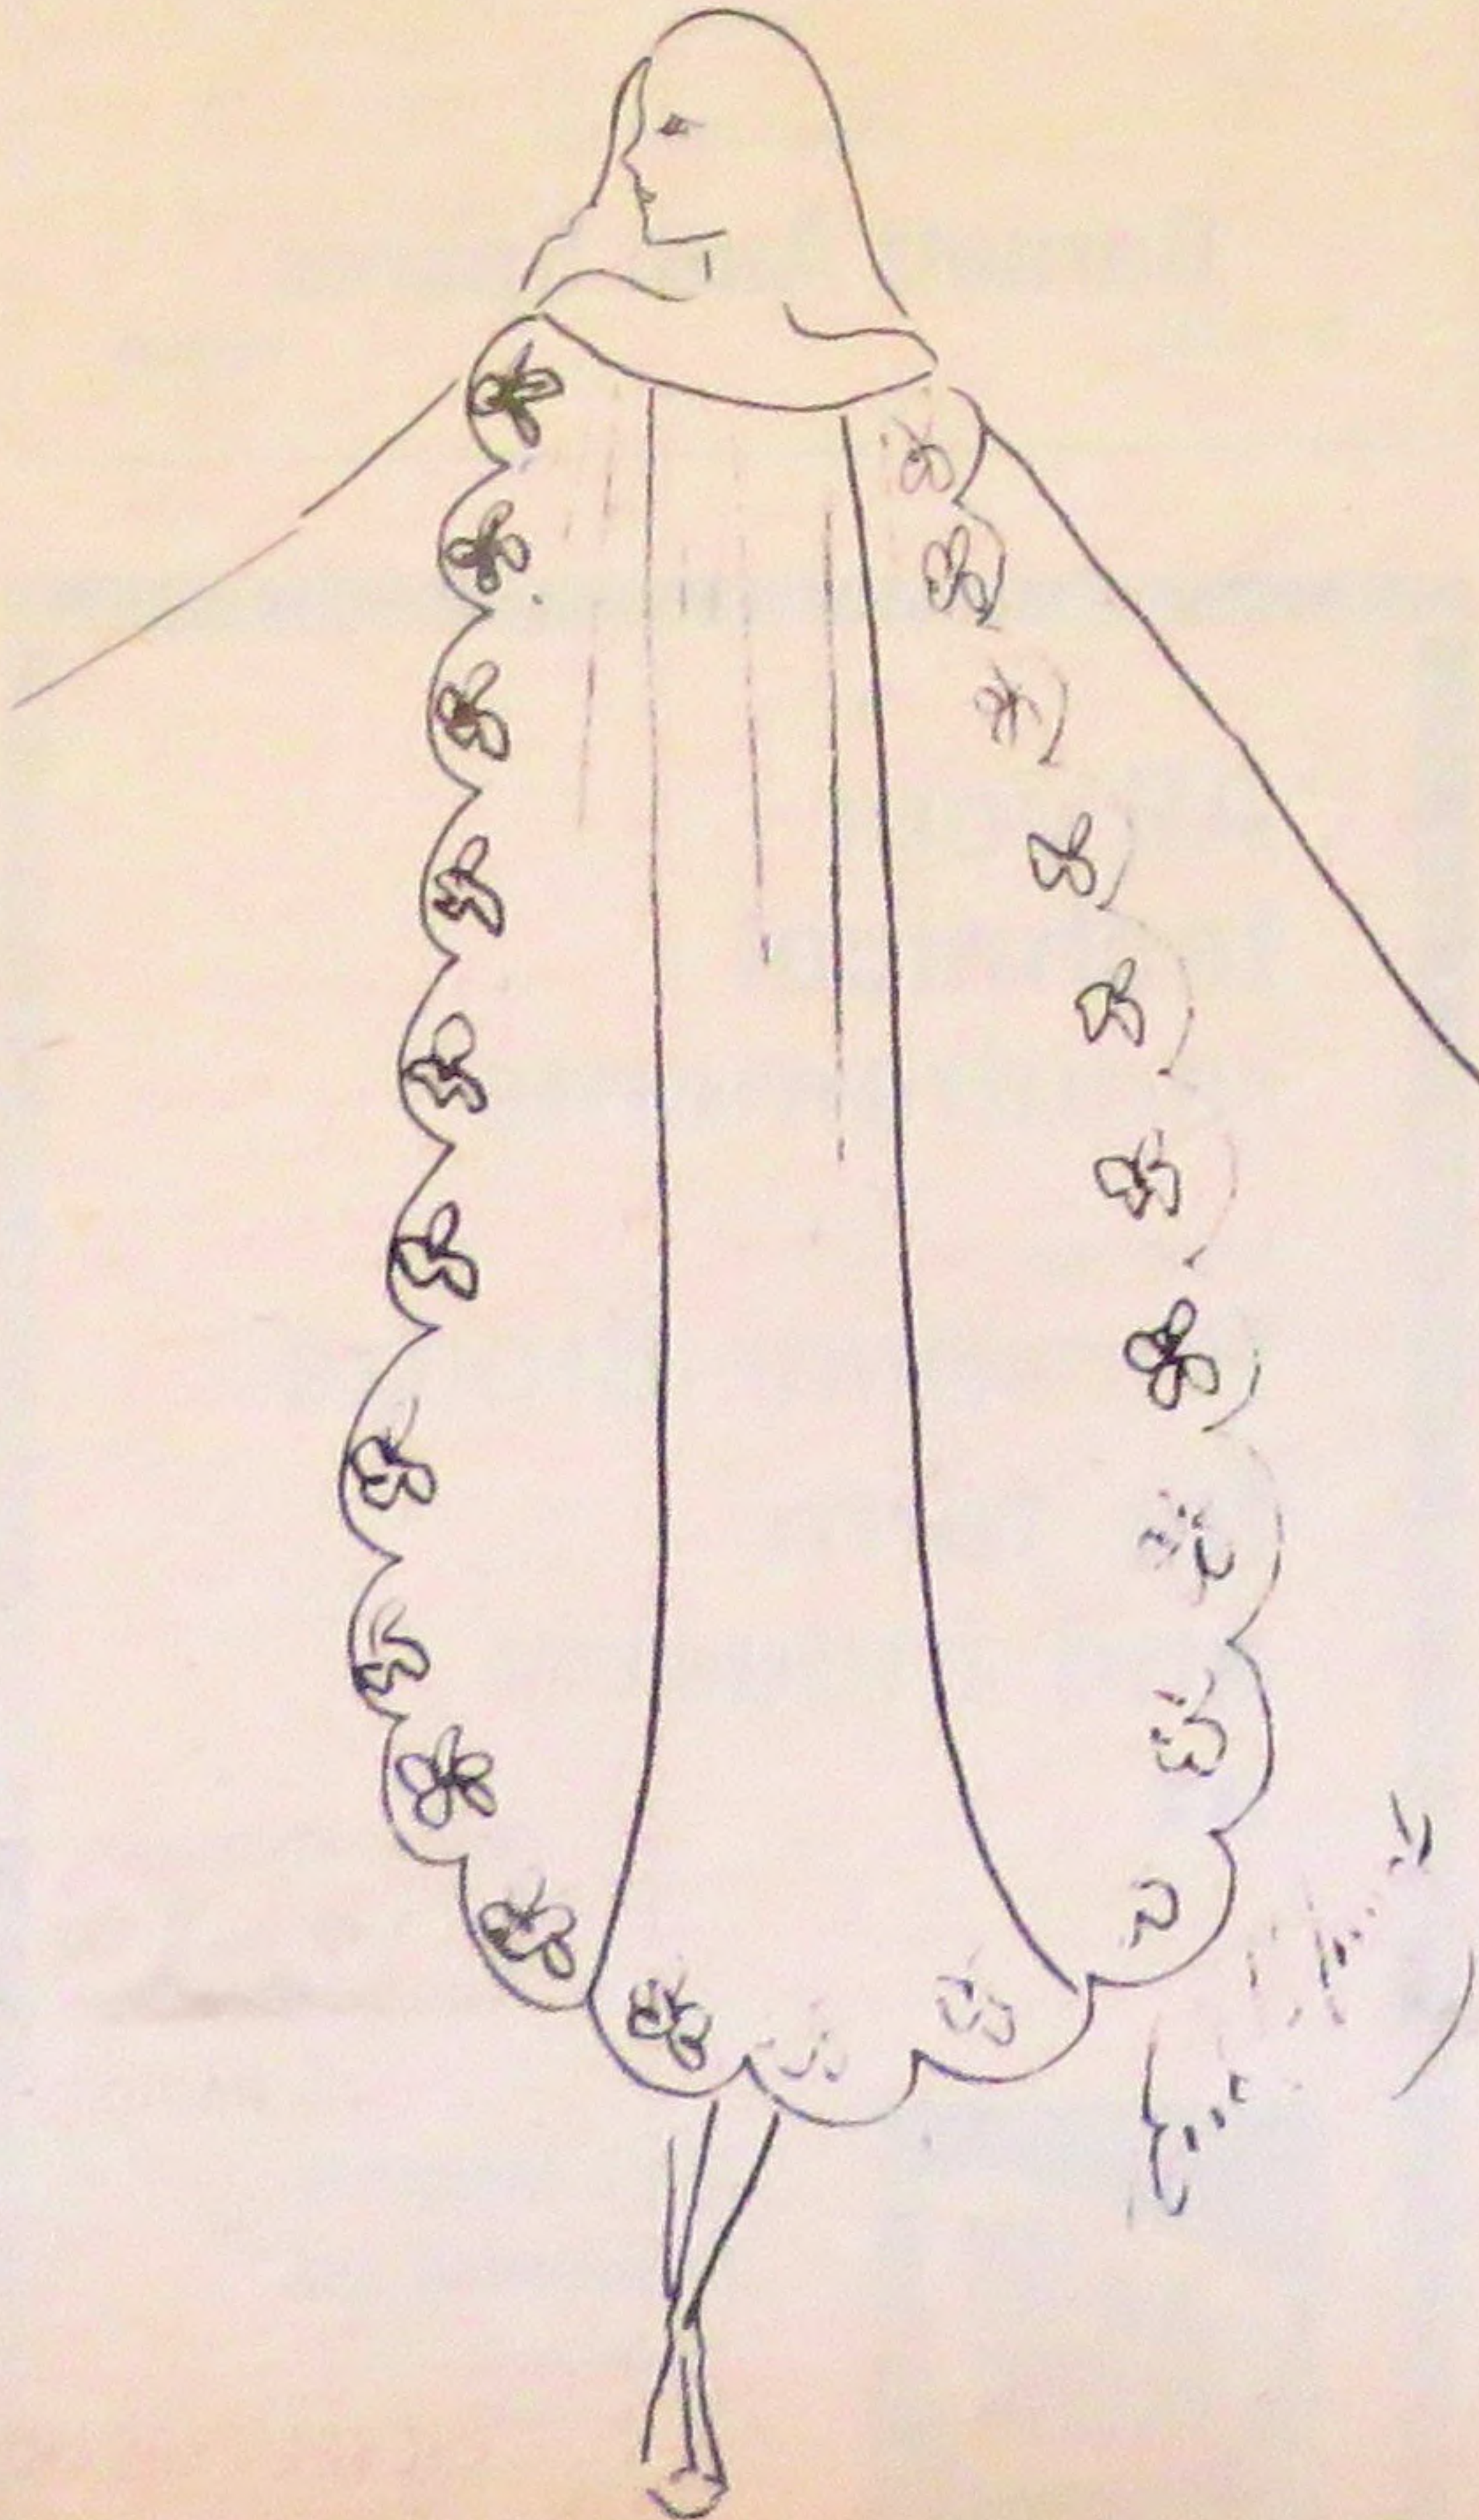

Cocktails will be served before the show which will take place in the HPS Aula, presented by Inge's Boutique and Anita's Charm School. Exclusive Arendz models will be worn by seven local models.

Tickets are available at Inge's Boutique and Thiel's Shoe Stores.

The accompanying sketches of elegant and unusual dresses form part of the Arendz collection and will be modelled in Windhoek on the 30th.

PHAEDRA — a fine jersey-knit toga top with draped skirt.

MU-MU — a white and green handpainted gown with flowing lines.
